

Family Gingerbread House Display Hollis Holiday Luminaria Stroll

Saturday December 8, 2018
10 a.m. to 5 p.m.
Hollis Town Hall
7 Monument Square

We are encouraging families to celebrate Gingerbread Day by making their own gingerbread houses to display at this year's Hollis Holiday Luminaria Stroll.

- Please bring your decorated house to the Town Hall between 10 a.m. – 12 p.m.
- Prizes will be awarded for children, adult and family made gingerbread houses.
- Judging will take place at 12:30 p.m.
- Winners will be announced at the tree lighting at 4:30 p.m.
- All gingerbread houses must be picked up by their creators by 5:00 p.m.

The Hollis Town Hall will be open to the community all day for viewing.
Encourage your friends and family to come enjoy this festive display.

Gingerbread houses are a favorite holiday pastime with families. These delicious, decorative bread houses have always been a staple of the holiday season. According to a French legend, gingerbread was brought to Europe in 992 A.D. by the Armenian monk and later saint, Gregory of Nicopolis (Gregory Makar).
